

County of Santa Rosa

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Steve Duncan has served as the District Conservationist for the U.S. Department of Agriculture Natural Resources Conservation Service in Santa Rosa County since May, 1987 and is retiring after thirty-two years of Federal service to the agricultural/conservation community in Florida ; and

WHEREAS, during his tenure and under his leadership as District Conservationist, the Milton/Santa Rosa County USDA Field Office has consistently ranked at the top of all Florida counties in meeting or exceeding Federal programmatic requirements and mandates and in providing direct assistance to farmers and landowners for soil conservation and erosion control measures; and

WHEREAS, since 1990 District Conservationist Steve Duncan has been directly responsible for over $15.5 million in erosion control and infrastructure stabilization measures and projects on publicly-owned property in Santa Rosa County which have directly and indirectly benefited all county residents.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Santa Rosa County Board of Commissioners, in recognition of twenty (20) years of exemplary service as District Conservationist and in deep appreciation of the extraordinary effort and leadership in securing millions of dollars in public infrastructure improvements, do hereby declare December 13, 2007 in Santa Rosa County, Florida, and encourage all its citizens to gratefully congratulate Steve Duncan on a job well done!

PASSED AND ADOPTED by the Board of County Commissioners of Santa Rosa County, Florida, this 13th day of December, 2007.
